Re: United States v. Brett Owens
24 CR 183 (JPC)

Dear Judge Cronan:

I represent Brett Owens in the above-referenced matter pursuant to my appointment on February 6, 2024. At defendant's presentment on that date before Magistrate Judge Cave, bail was set in this matter at a $50,000 personal recognizance bond to be cosigned by one financially responsible person. The defendant was released that day and conditions were met. The bail conditions included the normal travel restrictions to the Southern District and Eastern District of New York.

Mr. Owens requests that the bail conditions be temporarily modified to permit him to travel by bus to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on April 27th, returning the following day, April 28th. He has not yet confirmed where he will spend the night. He also requests permission to travel to Six Flags in Jackson, New Jersey on May 5th, returning the same day. Finally, he requests permission to travel to Washington, D.C. on or about May 23rd, returning on or about May 27th.

I have spoken with Pretrial Officer Jazzlyn Harris who informs me that Mr. Owens is presently in compliance with all of his pretrial release conditions and as long as he continues to be in compliance, she has no objection to any of the requested modifications. I have also been in contact with AUSA Jerry Fang who informs me that the Government does not object to these modifications conditioned on Mr. Owens providing to pretrial services his itinerary for the trip to Washington, D.C. from on or about May 23rd until or or about May 27th. All of these trips are for personal and recreational purposes.

Respectfully requested,

/s/

Harvey Fishbein

The request is granted. Mr. Owens may travel to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania from April 27 to April 28, 2024; Jackson, New Jersey on May 5, 2024; and Washington, DC from May 23 to May 27, 2024, provided that he first submits his itineraries to pre-trial services. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close Docket Number 14.

SO ORDERED.
